

Model T Ford Register

Bucks Ridges and Vales
Friday 1st to Sunday 3rd June 2001

You are invited to bring your Model T to this year's spring weekend which will be based at the Bell Hotel, an old coaching inn in the little market town of Winslow near Buckingham. The hotel has all the facilities we require with adequate parking for our Model T's. Parking for modern cars/trailers will be nearby.

The programme for the weekend is detailed overleaf and the event is open to all members of The Model T Ford Register.

The hotel cost for the weekend for two nights bed and breakfast with carvery dinner will be £78 per person based on double occupancy. Please note that this is a special "package" price and will be payable to the hotel. (Extra nights and dinners will be at the hotel full rate.) Any other requirements including special rates for children, please contact me.

(Hotel booking on the attached form. Please do not book the hotel direct.)

A cost of £10 per person (payable with this entry) will cover other items including entry and tea at Quainton Railway Centre as well as the hog roast picnic lunch.

If you are unable to join us for the whole weekend, we would still be delighted to see you and your Model T. Just let me know which parts you will be attending.

To be sure to secure your hotel accommodation, please send your completed entry form before 17th April to:
